Shalom Parents!

We are now in the midst of planning for the next religious school year at the United Jewish Center. As you know, Daryl Bain (Director of Education), with the support of Rabbi Librach, Cantor Kessler, and the Religious School Committee, continue to maintain the highest standards and are working hard to strengthen our programs. In our constant pursuit of excellence, we continue to strive for the best curriculum for our students, keeping our programs current and on the cutting edge of religious education.

The registration process for the upcoming 2011-2012 school year has now begun. Enclosed you will find your registration packet, along with an updated account statement, including Religious School 2011-2012 fees. A minimum deposit of $100 per child and completed registration forms will be required by June 15, 2011 to hold your child's place. After June 15, there will be an additional registration fee of $50 per child. Payment of all religious school fees is due by September 1, 2011. *In order to plan the upcoming year accordingly, please note that this deadline must be adhered to and will be strictly enforced without exception.

NOTE: We need to be 100% certain that all students attending Religious School have completed registration forms and deposits submitted and processed. Please submit all completed forms, along with your deposit, to Laura Morris, Office Manager, in the Bookkeeping Office on the second floor. Please note that your child will not be registered until receipt of all of the above material has been satisfactorily completed.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation and continued support. We welcome your feedback and/or suggestions. Please feel free to contact Daryl Bain at 203-743-1180.
